

EXAMPLE JOB DESCRIPTION

Garden Maintenance Operative Job Description

Salary: DOE

Location: London

Full time job position

We have openings for Garden Maintenance Operative jobs with a multi award-winning landscape company based in London. Garden landscaping work will take place mainly on sites in southwest London. Many of these are in prestigious private and commercial gardens.

Garden Maintenance Operative Responsibilities

As a garden maintenance operative your duties will include:

- All aspects of gardening, grounds maintenance, and horticulture
- Lawn care
- Chemical applications and record keeping (training and supervision will be given)
- Ground clearance and seasonal garden work
- Maintenance of both hard landscaping soft landscaping areas
- Tending and upkeep of flower beds, borders and containers
- Pruning and trimming
- Maintenance and cleaning of water features, including irrigation systems

Requirements for this Garden Maintenance Job

- Highly organised and professional in approach with a keen eye for detail
- NVQ in horticulture, a related qualification or previous horticulture job experience
- Good and clear communication skills for both client and company
- UK driving licence
- PA1 / PA6 spraying licence

The Landscaping Company You will Be Working For

Our client is an award-winning landscape design and build company based in London, best known for creating uniquely tailored gardens. They offer a high level of support, assistance and direction during the design, planning and installation phase of a project through to completion and maintenance. There is a drive and passion for landscaping and garden maintenance, shown through their attention to detail and the extremely high standard of workmanship that goes into creating their signature gardens.

You can expect the following benefits as a garden maintenance operative with this company:

- Bonus scheme after 1 years' service
- 20 days holiday as standard + Bank Holidays
- Pension
- Licences paid for and training provided